

BRIDGE TO THE NATIONS

Mexico Mission Trip 2026

Come Serve. Come Love. Come Make a Difference.

DATES: October 20–30, 2026

LOCATION: Tayoltita, Sinaloa, Central Mexico

Bridge To The Nations (BTTN) is inviting you to join us for a mission trip to Tayoltita, Sinaloa, Mexico where we will serve Indigenous families working in the agricultural plantations in the area.

This is an opportunity to step into a different culture, build relationships, serve families, and share the love of God through practical acts of kindness and ministry.

“Serving Indigenous communities with the love of God—bringing hope, dignity, and transformation.”

What Will We Be Doing?

During our time in Central Mexico, we will have opportunities to serve alongside BTTN and minister to Indigenous children and families through a variety of activities, including:

- Sharing the love of God through acts of kindness
- Children's Bible Clubs
- Soccer clinics
- Movie nights
- Door-to-door ministry
- Sunday service
- Prayer and sharing the Gospel
- Other opportunities to serve the families and community as needs arise

Our desire is not simply to visit the community, but to serve, build relationships, and share God's love in meaningful and practical ways.

Who Should Apply?

This mission trip is for individuals who have a heart to serve others and a desire to share God's love with Indigenous children and families.

Participants should be willing to:

- Serve as part of a team

- Participate in hands-on ministry
- Be flexible and willing to adjust as needs arise
- Respect the local culture and community
- Participate in the various ministry activities planned throughout the trip
- Come with a servant's heart and a willingness to learn

This is more than a trip to Mexico—it is an opportunity to serve, build relationships, and be part of what God is doing among Indigenous families in Central Mexico.
